Thank you for your generous non-cash gifts. As a charity we can describe what we received, but we do not put a value on donated property for tax purposes. The donor is responsible for working out the fair market value, and a qualified appraisal may be required for higher-value items.

Date received	Description of item(s)	Condition	Value basis (donor to complete)
14 Mar 2026	40 laptops (refurbished, 2023 models)	Good	Donor estimate
14 Mar 2026	6 projectors with cables	Very good	Donor estimate
09 Sep 2026	250 hardback reading books	New	Publisher invoice copy
02 Nov 2026	Pro-bono web design (40 hours)	Service	Not deductible as a gift of services

No goods or services were provided in exchange for these contributions.

- Keep this statement with your records of how and when you bought each item.
- For property valued above the limits set by your tax authority, an appraisal or extra forms may be needed (for example IRS Form 8283 in the US).
- Contributed services and volunteer time are generally not deductible, though related out-of-pocket expenses may be.
